

Clemson University Actuarial Club

Dr. Mark Cawood – Advisor

Kaitlin Carter – President

Jake Marshall – Vice-President

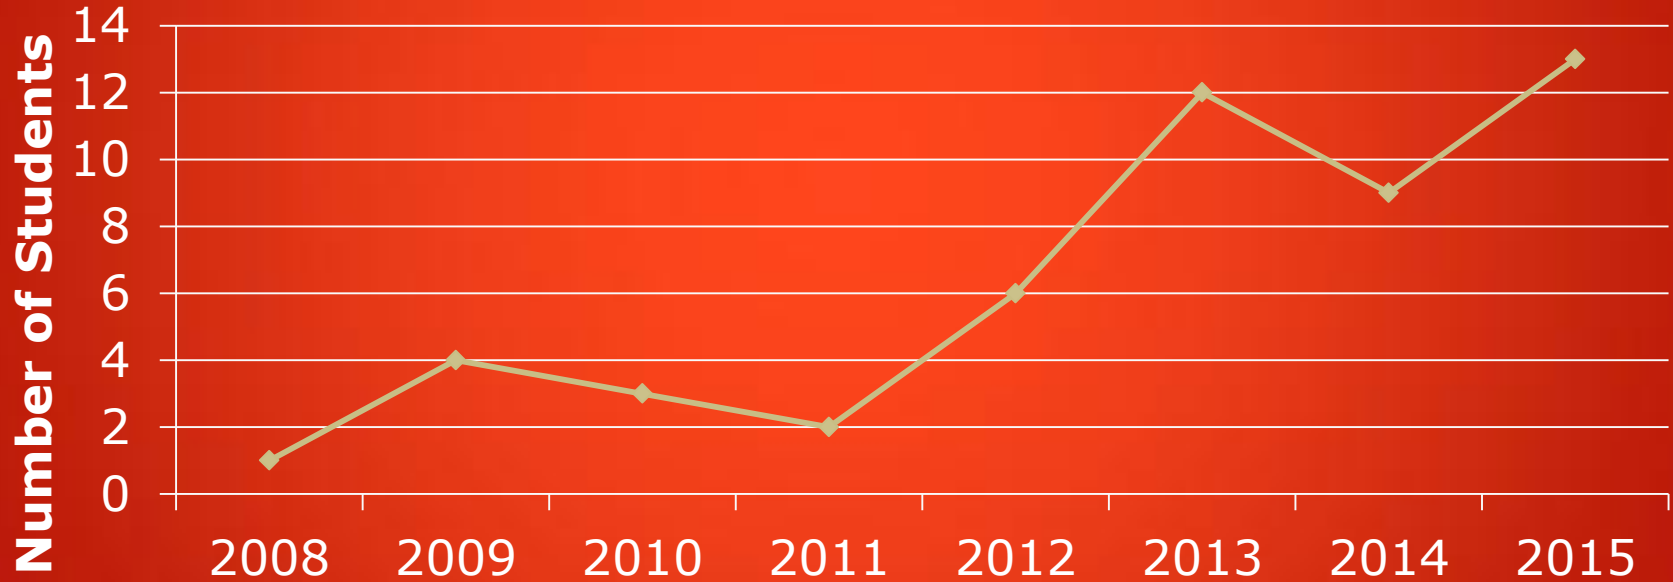

Lindsey Moyer - Secretary

Actuarial Program History

- Typically, students get BS in Mathematical Sciences with emphasis in Actuarial Science and Financial Mathematics (AS/FM)
 - Some get BA in Math or BS in Finance
- AS/FM emphasis started in 2007-2008 academic year
- 50 total graduates

Actuarial Program History

Number of Graduates Per Year

AS/FM Emphasis

- Currently prepares students for:
 - P/1 Exam
 - FM/2 Exam
 - VEE's: Economics, Corporate Finance, Applied Statistics

SEAC Scholarship Recipients

- 2012: Kyle Bestie
- 2013: Brad Burkett, Patrick Davidson
- 2014: Kaitlin Carter, Matthew Hinton, Lindsey Moyer, Allegra Simone
- 2015: Matthew Hinton, Jake Marshall, Lindsey Moyer

Actuarial Club

- Provide networking events for students
- Serve as an avenue for recruiters to come to campus
- Provides opportunities for students to learn about internships
- Helps students with resume workshops and interviewing tips

Annual Actuarial Exposition

- Career fair setting where students can network with professionals
- Companies have opportunity to present and conduct on campus interviews
- Held in fall semester for past two years

Annual Actuarial Exposition

2014

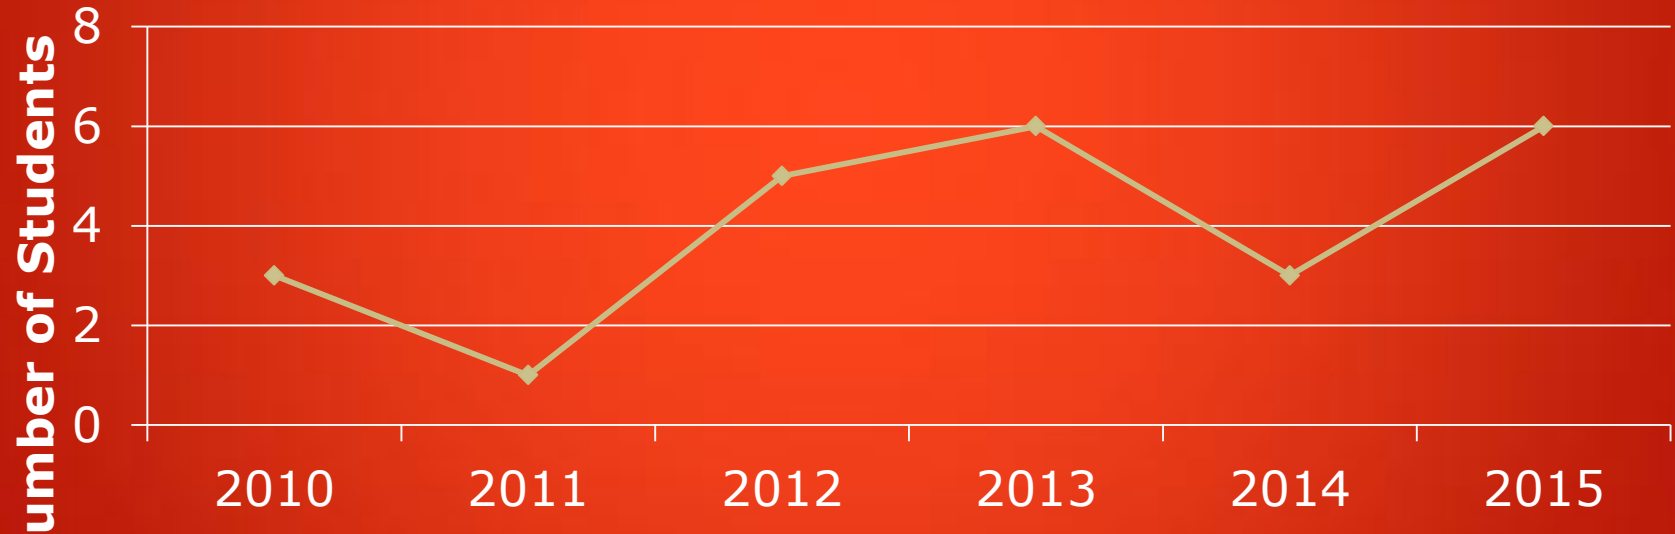

- Aflac
- American Credit Acceptance
- Blue Cross/Blue Shield of South Carolina
- Colonial Life
- Lincoln Financial Group
- Oliver Wyman
- TIAA-CREF

2015

- Aflac
- American Credit Acceptance
- Blue Cross/Blue Shield of South Carolina
- Canal Insurance
- Lincoln Financial Group
- Oliver Wyman

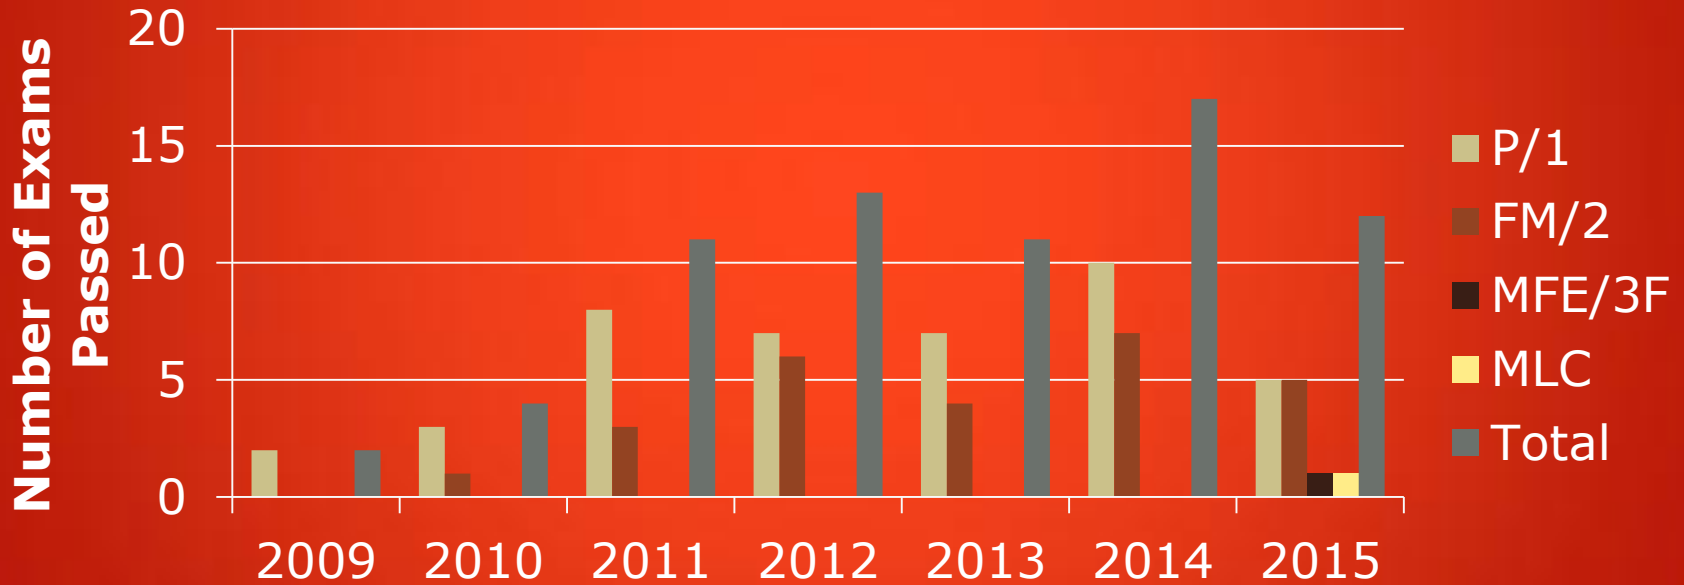

Internships

Number of Students who have Completed Actuarial Internships

Passing Exams

Number of Exams Passed by Year

Future Goals

- Incorporate classes that give students the opportunity to prepare for MFE and MLC
- Reimbursement Program: If a student passes an exam, then the CUAC will reimburse the exam.
 - Will cost $4000 per year
- Corporate sponsorship

Contact Information

CUAC

cuac@g.clemson.edu

Website address

Mark Cawood

cawood@clemson.edu

864-656-5214